Dear Chef Jack and Staff,

It's been over one month since we celebrated Stacy [redacted] and Keith [redacted] wedding at the Renaissance Place. You may remember it as the night of torrential rain, tornado warnings and flooded basements.

However, we will remember it as the day our daughter got married. We want to thank you for your gift of service. Everyone was so friendly. We would not hesitate to recommend you to anyone, however, we're certain that your professionalism and work ethic speaks for itself. You are your own best advertising. You must get significant satisfaction in knowing that you help to make special occasions extra special.

The wait staff serving appetizers and Stacy's favorite punch worked tirelessly. We especially appreciated the staff which would take our toothpicks so others would not know how many appetizers we had eaten. Everything was delicious, served at the right temperature and there was plenty to go around.

The food was outstanding. We received many compliments from our guests. Everyone commented on how delicious everything was. We have been to weddings previously where we were the last to the buffet table and there wasn't much food left. Of course the weather didn't help, but the food you served was excellent, plentiful and served beautifully. We can't imagine what it must take to keep food ready for the masses but you certainly have it figured out to a tee.

There are so many things to think about when it's your daughter's wedding. You took care of everything. Your reputation is well known and well deserved. We know you've been doing this for quite some time and it shows. You and your staff made everything look effortless, - we knew there was a finely oiled machine working at peak perfection.

[redacted] He was very glad to know he would be working with you. He has the utmost respect for you and your staff and we can understand why.

We only have one daughter. She worked very hard to plan the wedding of her dreams. You helped to make it a reality. Thanks you for doing what you do so well. When we think back on the day, we will recall that hiring Chef Jack was one of the best things we did.

Sincerely,

Craig + Nancy [redacted]
